Autopsy Could Give Clue to Missing Trio

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—An autopsy at the University Medical Center on the lower half of a body may yield a clue today in the case of three missing civil rights workers.

A fisherman found the decomposed lower torso, its feet bound with rope, Sunday in Old River where it cuts away from the Mississippi about 15 miles south of Tallulah, La.

Tallulah is 125 miles southwest of Philadelphia, Miss., where three civil rights workers disappeared June 21 shortly after their release from jail on a speeding violation.

The condition of the body made it impossible to tell the sex or race.

Push Probe in Shotgun Slaying

By JOE ZELLNER

COLBERT, Ga. (AP)—FBI and Georgia state agents today pushed an intensive investigation into the mysterious shotgun slaying of a Washington Negro educator.

J. J. Casper, assistant director of the FBI, would say only that the investigation is continuing. "I'm in no position to make any comment," he said.

State investigators fanned out Sunday along the route taken through northeast Georgia by Lemuel Penn, 49, director of Washington's vocational high schools, when he was shot at the wheel of his car early Saturday by a night-riding gunman.

Residents along the rural route said agents of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation moved from house to house in their questioning Sunday. Public Safety Director Lowell Conner said there were no arrests and that he had nothing to report.

Penn, a lieutenant colonel in the Army Reserve, was killed by a shotgun blast fired from a car which passed his automobile from the rear about 10 miles northeast of Colbert. Two other Negro officers riding with Penn escaped injury. The three men had completed a refresher course at Ft. Benning.

The only investigator talking was Madison County Sheriff Dewey Seagraves, who said he was getting nowhere. "They are not either," Seagraves said, referring to the FBI.

Results in Little League Baseball

By Jimmy Singleton

In the first game Friday night, Midwest Dairy clipped Coleman Dairy 13 to 6. Young was the winning hurler and Whitten took the loss. Brown went 3 for 3 for Midwest and Edwards 2 for 2, both doubles.

Jones hurled the Sheriffs to a 12 to 6 victory over the Lions. Watkins was the losing pitcher. Still collected 3 for 3 for the winners while Warren and Watkins got 2 for 2 for the Lions.

In the final game CBC downed Hope Auto 9 to 4 behind Calhoun's hurling. Simmons was the losing hurler. Purtle led CBC with 4 hits in 4 tries and Laughard got 2 for 3 for Hope Auto.

25 of 38 Hope Graduates of the Class of 1924 Hold Reunion at Country Club

Twenty-five members of the Hope High School Class of 1924 met at the Hope Country Club Saturday, July 11 for a 40th year reunion. Those coming from out-of-town were: Camille Hicks Thompson (Mrs. W. M.), Rodesa, La.; Elizabeth White Furman (Mrs. Hubert), Abbeville, S. C.; David Finley, Clayton, Mo.; Lillie Mae Ridgill Coker (Mrs. Glen), Glenwood; Virgil W. Warmack, Chicago; Bessie Bacon Bruce (Mrs. Elvin), Smackover; Calvin Marshall, Little Rock; Iola Roberts Elkins (Mrs. Alonzo), Jonesboro, La.;

Mary Dever Ash (Mrs. James Longview, Tex.; Claud W. Hendricks, Fort Smith; Phil McRae, Wilson; Lefell Gentry, Little Rock; Vivian Cox Shiver (Mrs. Ernest) Magnolia; Newton Murray, Huntsville, Tex.; Herman Burge, Denton, Tex. Only two members of the class of 38 were not located, Eugenia Gibson and Neva Stoy.

At an afternoon reception for classmates, teachers, and friends the clubhouse was decorated in red and white, the school colors, with red gladioli, and white daisies, gifts of Thelma Hooper Rogers (Mrs. W. H.) of Falls Church, Va., a classmate unable to attend, and the Citizens National Bank. Lemonade and white cake squares iced with red were served to several hundred who called.

An attractive display of old pictures was of interest at the reception, and four former teachers were present: Miss Beryl Henry, Benton; Mrs. N. W. Den-ty, Mrs. Dorsey McRae, Sr., and Florence Spriggins Hyatt (Mrs. B. C.), all of Hope. At the dinner that evening letters were read from Miss Josie Anderson, Little Rock, and Lenna Leiper Ward (Mrs. Finley), Schenectady, N. Y., as well as word being related from Dr. Garland Rushing, Longview, Tex., a former football coach at H. H. S.

The evening meal, was served at the clubhouse to 62, including teachers, classmates, and their families. Upon the request of Elizabeth Stuart Wright (Mrs. Harold B.), Pampa, Tex., who was unable to attend, the class telephoned her and all got to talk. After dinner, a program was presented and then informal reminiscing was enjoyed.

The invocation was given by Phil McRae and the welcome by Royce Weisenberger, master of ceremonies. Harry Hawthorne, had a memorial tribute to the four deceased class members, Graydon Green, Ira Andres, Smead Talley, and Dick Watkins.

Camille Hicks Thompson told the group "1924 Was the Year That Was," and Lefell Gentry had "Tall Tales of 1924." The prize for the largest family went to Oma Bowden Byers and the prize for traveling the greatest distance went to Elizabeth White Furman of Abbeville, S. C. The Senior Quartet, Hale Bowden, Lefell Gentry, Calvin Marshall, and Newton Murray sang as it had done on the night the class had graduating exercises at the First Methodist Church, May 22, 1924.

Funds Needed for Band Uniforms

The fund raising drive to pay for new uniforms for the Hope High School Band is off to a good start, it was reported today.

With only one organizational meeting and some preliminary work done by the fund raising committee a total of more than one thousand dollars has been reported to date.

Contributions to date are as follows:

Hope Lions Club $200
Hope Rotary Club 200
Hope Kiwanis Club 200
Jaycee's and Jaycettes 87.50
Mr. and Mrs. George Frazier 100

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Brents 100
Southwest Wood Products 100
A Band Booster 100
Total $1,087.50

While this first report is fine, it is a long way from the $1,000 goal. The Band Mother's Club has already contributed $1,500. The total cost of all uniforms will be $5,500, with each uniform costing almost $100.

If you wish to make a contribution to the uniform fund, please contact Dr. Harold M. Brents, the fund raising chairman, or Mrs. Thorold D. Jones, President of the Band Mothers Auxiliary.

28th Republican Convention Gets Started Officially

By JACK BELL and Harry Kelly

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—With pomp and ceremony—and backstage battling — Republicans opened their 1964 convention today to choose the man who will carry their standard against President Johnson in the fall.

Barring some kind of thunderbolt, the man will be Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Even as the convention doors swung open, Goldwater dashed farther ahead in the race for delegates, picking up 42 of Ohio's 53 convention votes in a caucus of the delegation. He had been credited with 20 in advance.

Here, in all likelihood, Goldwater found the "few more" delegates he felt he needed to sew up the nomination on the first ballot Wednesday and roll over his only real opponent, Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania.

But although the nomination was almost in his pocket, Goldwater acknowledged he was suffering a bit from stage fright. Asked how he felt as the convention was opening, Goldwater replied, as he was leaving his hotel: "Scared to death as always."

As to a move by Scranton forces to try to change convention rules and force a secret ballot, Goldwater said it would be undemocratic.

Goldwater was described as "boiling mad" Sunday night

5 Persons Die in Arkansas Accident

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five persons were killed in one traffic accident and three in another Sunday as Arkansas' weekend violent death toll climbed to 13 persons.

Eleven of the 13 died in traffic accidents, the Associated Press count for the weekend period ending at midnight showed. One person drowned and one died in a farm accident.

The five were killed in a two-car, head-on collision on U.S. 64, a mile west of Crawfordville. The dead were identified by state police as Marion H. Epps, 51, of Memphis; his wife, Ninna, 48; his mother, Mrs. Floyd Epps, 68, of Cherry Valley; Sandra Dollar, 14, of Hazen and Lindell L. Dailey, 18, of Wynne.

Epps was driving one of the cars, and Miss Dollar was driving the other, with Dailey as a passenger, state police said.

Two Fort Smith Junior College students and a former student at the school were killed Sunday when their car went off U.S. 68 a mile west of Huntsville and hit a tree. State police said the car was driven by Joel B. Workman, 23, of Stilwell, Okla., who was killed along with David Hudspeth, 18, of Yellville and Bennie Timmons, 21, of Brennan, Ky. Timmons had recently dropped out of the junior college.

Charles V. Fuller, 40, of Earle, died Sunday night when his car struck a bridge railing on Arkansas 64 just east of Earle and plunged into a creek. State Trooper Marvin Sinyard said Fuller apparently drowned. He was alone.

Ted Allen Pebey, 15, of Star City drowned Sunday when a boat he was fishing from was caught in a swift current and carried under a stationary barge on the Arkansas river near Little Rock. Three others with him hung onto a dike, to which the barge was tied, until they were rescued by another fisherman.

Judson Ray Avery, 29, of Fort Defiance, Ariz., was killed Saturday when the tractor he was riding flipped over and pinned him. He was pulling logs at his father's farm near Clinton.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, 51, of Montgomery, Ala., was killed Saturday when her husband's car went out of control and overturned three times on U.S. 65 about 10 miles north of Harrison. Her husband, Maj. K. G. Clark of the Maxwell Air Force Base at Montgomery, was treated and released at a Harrison hospital.

Scranton Aides in a Do or Die GOP Struggle

By EDMOND LEBRETON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. William W. Scranton's forces are making the proposed Republican platform the battle-ground in their do-or-die struggle to deny Sen. Barry Goldwater the presidential nomination.

But Goldwater, whose strength on the platform committee was displayed in the crushing of key proposals sought by Scranton, said he isn't afraid of the result of any floor fight the Pennsylvania may be able to organize Tuesday.

That is the day for considering the party statement. Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, Scranton's manager, promised to force votes on major amendments in a struggle for "the soul of the Republican party." Such a fight would be a major element in Scranton's drive to change enough delegates' minds to block Goldwater's indicated first-ballot nomination Wednesday.

The Pennsylvania governor sounded the battle cry in a letter accusing Goldwater of allowing "the radical extremism to use you" and saying "Goldwaterism has come to stand for nuclear irresponsibility . . . being afraid to forthrightly condemn rightwing ex-

Two Churches Burned Near Natchez

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Pre-dawn fires burned two Negro churches to the ground in a rural community near this south-west Mississippi city today.

Sheriff Odell Anders of Adams County said he called in investigators from the state fire marshal's office to probe causes of the fires.

Burned were the Jerusalem Baptist church, located about two miles north of Kingston, and the Bethel Methodist church, about one mile east of Kingston Road.

Fire department crews from Natchez were sent to the scene of both blazes.

White residents of Kingston pledged they would help with men, money and materials to rebuild the churches.

An unidentified citizen told a newsman:

"We want to help these people rebuild their places of worship. This community is friendly and peaceful with no ill feeling toward anyone."

At Natchez, a Negro contractor, Willie Washington, 57, told police a white man tossed a firebomb at his home early today but it failed to ignite.

Washington told Lt. Charles Bahin of the Natchez Police Department that a car stopped in front of his house and a white man threw a bottle filled with gasoline or kerosene and rage stuffed in it.

Rockefeller Plans Acquainted Tour

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller, Republican candidate for governor, will make on July 23 his first "get acquainted" tour as the only Arkansas ever nominated for the GOP presidential candidacy.

The Arkansas delegation to the Republican National Convention voted Sunday to nominate Rockefeller as a favorite son candidate, although most of the delegation will cast first ballot votes for Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Rockefeller has visited 17 counties on his meet-the-voters tour.

Rockefeller is scheduled to make stops a week from Thursday at Arkadelphia, Antone, Delight, Mt. Neeshoro, Kirby, Daisy, Glenwood, Amity and Alpine.

Lumberman to Nominate Rockefeller

By JOHN R. STARR
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — John Paul Hammerschmidt, a lumber dealer from Harrison, Ark., will nominate Winthrop Rockefeller as a favorite son candidate for president at the Republican National Convention Wednesday.

The job fell to Hammerschmidt when he was elected vice chairman of the Arkansas delegation at the group's first caucus Sunday.

"I'm no speechmaker," Hammerschmidt said. "But I've got two days to get ready."

No one was designated to make the second speech. "We'll have to work that out," Hammerschmidt said.

At the caucus, the delegation officially made its decision to nominate Rockefeller, who is running for governor of Arkansas on the Republican ticket.

Plans for the nomination were made at the Arkansas Republican Committee meeting May 21.

The plan almost was abandoned earlier this week because delegates favoring Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater for the presidential nomination feared a favorite son move might hurt Goldwater.

Rockefeller announced after the caucus that nine of the 12 Arkansas votes will go to Goldwater. Rockefeller will vote for his brother, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. The two delegates who are still uncommitted are Cy Carney Jr. of Fayetteville and Howard Vance of Sedgwick.

Goldwater had eight votes in the Arkansas delegation before it came to San Francisco. The ninth is that of James Grimes of Jonesboro who frequently has been critical of Goldwater.

Grimes refused to comment on why he decided to give his vote to Goldwater but he indicated he was going along with results of a private poll he made of Republican leaders in this area. The poll produced a strong plurality for the senator.

Grimes said he probably will permit his alternate to cast his vote on the convention floor.

Hammerschmidt said the vote to carry through on the favorite son nomination was unanimous.

over a letter Scranton sent him, and then made public in a late-hour move to try to stop the hurtling Goldwater bandwagon.

By JACK BELL

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The gates swing open today on the 28th Republican convention, fenced in tightly by hard-driving supporters bent on giving Sen. Barry Goldwater a first-ballot presidential nomination.

Thundering over the opposition Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton was attempting to provide, Goldwater's out-riders already had put the Arizona senator's conservative brand on the platform the convention will be asked to adopt Tuesday. And Goldwater promptly rejected a challenge by Scranton for a debate before the convention.

Goldwater moved into the Earlier Mrs. W. L. Jameson of Magnolia, a staunch Goldwater supporter, had indicated she would not go along with it.

Rockefeller will withdraw as a candidate before the first roll call, so all of the Arkansas votes except one—Rockefeller's—will go to serious candidates on the first ballot.

"Blood is thicker than politics," Rockefeller said in explaining his vote. He had planned to vote for Nelson, as had Grimes, before Nelson withdrew as a serious candidate after his defeat by Goldwater in the California primary.

Carney and Vance apparently will vote for Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton, the other serious candidate besides Goldwater.

Rockefeller and his wife entertained the Arkansas party, numbering about 50, at a dinner Sunday night.

convention's opening day with 740 first-ballot votes credited to him in an Associated Press poll—85 more than the 655 needed for nomination if they remain in his column. This total includes 303 delegates who favor him but are not officially bound. The survey credited Scranton with 169 votes, none of them bound to him.

Scranton, out-gunned a tevery turn, tried to rally his tattered forces for a last-ditch effort Tuesday to revive in a convention floor fight some of the proposals shot down within the Goldwater-dominated platform committee.

At the cavernous Cow Palace, National Chairman William E. Miller, a leading candidate for the vice presidential nomination, was scheduled to bang the gavel at noon. Opening session greetings were to follow, along with the election of Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon as temporary chairman.

Probing for an opening in the encircling Goldwater forces, Scranton fired off a letter Sunday night challenging the Arizona senator to an unprecedented debate before the convention. Goldwater rejected this proposal as ridiculous and returned the letter unanswered.

Scranton said the issue is whether the convention will choose "the candidate overwhelmingly favored by the Republican voters, or will it choose you?" The Pennsylvania governor has cited polls which show him widely preferred over Goldwater as the nominee.

Scranton said "Goldwaterism has come to stand for a whole crazy-quilt of absurd and dangerous positions that would be soundly repudiated by the American people in November."

Gauchos, or South American cowboys, played an important part in the development of Argentina and Uruguay.

LBJ, Barry Act Like Men Who Made It

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analysis

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson and Sen. Barry Goldwater act like men who have it made. Yet, a year ago, Johnson couldn't have dreamed of it. And Goldwater probably wouldn't have bet on it.

Johnson, with the Democratic presidential nomination locked up, is playing mum in this month of July while the Republicans are making up their minds on someone to match him.

Goldwater, looking surer of the Republican presidential nomination than anyone in sight has been letting the anti-Goldwater forces do the talking as they barge around looking for support that seems slow in coming.

It wasn't like this for Johnson or Goldwater a year ago.

Then President Kennedy, in full health and with no opposition in sight, had no problem about being renominated this year. The best Johnson could have hoped for was getting re-elected vice president for another four years.

Maybe then, at the end of two terms for Kennedy, he might put in his bid for the presidency.

This time, a year ago, Goldwater fans were working around the country for him. And he himself had drummed up a lot of Republican support with his fund-raising speeches for the party. But he was still saying he wasn't a candidate.

It wasn't clear who might be. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon had damaged himself by losing his race for the governorship of California in 1962.

And New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, while suspected of presidential ambitions, had no inside track. Yet, Goldwater and Rockefeller were the only real prospects in sight.

Goldwater in the spring of 1963 had commented on talk that he and Rockefeller were the two main Republican hopes. "If we're so hard up that we have only Rockefeller and Goldwater, we're in a hell of a shape."

This was while he was still saying all he wanted was re-election to the Senate. His chances must have begun to look better to him as the summer wore on.

In September, 1963, it was learned he had reserved the entire 15th floor in a hotel in San Francisco for this July when the travels, refusing to stand for law and order in maintaining racial peace."

From across the party line came indications that Democrats were gearing for the fray on the assumption that Goldwater and the platform would win GOP approval.

Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey in Washington called the Republican platform draft a "fantasy, conceived in a shadowland of fear and hate," and containing "every radical right cliché."

But the platform committee chairman, Melvin R. Laird, said the group was not dictated by Goldwater or anyone else. The Wisconsin congressman predicted its product will be "supported by the overwhelming majority of delegates Tuesday night."

The document being sent to the rank and file delegates—while Scranton forces map their parliamentary strategy to fight it—reflects Goldwater's expressed views on point after point and omits the major position statements for which Scranton pleaded in person and through his representatives on the drafting group.

Scranton wanted a repudiation of political extremism, with a specific disavowal of the John Birch Society and a plank opposing any shift from the president to any military commander of authority over use of any nuclear weapons.

These didn't get into the draft platform at all, and instead of declaring the new Civil Rights Act constitutional, as Scranton demanded, the document writers pledged "full implementation and faithful execution."

Republican convention was being held there.

Yet, a little more than a week later, he was telling newsmen who asked if he was going to try for the presidency: "I've said a thousand times I'm going to run for the Senate, nothing more."

On Jan. 3, 1964, he announced his candidacy. And meanwhile, the assassination of Kennedy last November thrust Johnson into the presidency with no one to challenge his nomination at the Democratic convention next month.

The president is far and away the more experienced politician. He came to Congress in 1937.

Goldwater served several years on the city council in Phoenix, Ariz., but he didn't hit big-time politics until he came to the Senate in 1953.

Man Lied in Thompson Murder Case

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Dick W. C. Anderson, who confessed a sensational murder and helped convict two other men, lied in his court testimony, according to a letter identified as written in Anderson's hand.

Defense attorneys confirmed that they will try to use the statement to pry open prison doors for T. Eugene Thompson, the prominent St. Paul attorney convicted of arranging his wife's slaying, and Norman Mastrian, convicted as the middleman.

All three men are in Stillwater Prison for the March 6, 1963, slaying of Mrs. Thompson in her St. Paul home.

Repudiation of Anderson's testimony was contained in a nine-page letter confiscated by prison officials. Existence of the letter was learned late Thursday. It is in the hands of the Minnesota attorney general's office.

The letter was not signed, but Asst. Atty. Gen. James Bradford said a prison clerk identified the handwriting as that of Anderson.

C. Paul Jones, Thompson's attorney, said he visited this week with Anderson, who confirmed that he had written the letter and wants it returned so he can send it to Gov. Karl Rolvaag.

Thompson and Mastrian were convicted of first-degree murder for the bludgeon-stab slaying of Mrs. Thompson, 34. Anderson pleaded guilty after the trials.

Anderson was the state's key witness, testifying he carried out the slaying as an employee of Mastrian. The state charged in turn that Thompson hired Mastrian to arrange the slaying of Mrs. Thompson, insured for more than a million dollars.

The letter says Anderson hopes to clear his conscience. It agrees with previous testimony on the details of the slaying.

However, Anderson now claims he sought to burglarize the house and "went crazy in the head" when Mrs. Thompson recovered after he stunned her.

Flowers-Gaines Vows Exchanged

At five o'clock on the afternoon of June 14, Miss Millie Jean Flowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Flowers, and Larry Forrest Gaines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Gaines, were united in holy matrimony at the Unity Baptist Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gordon Renshaw before an arch of ivy flanked by candles. Greenery also was entwined on the tiered altar railing. Miss Dora Ann King, organist, played a program of re-nuptial music accompanied Mrs. Jerry Kidd of Springhill, La., who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "With This Ring." As the couple knelt at the conclusion of the ceremony on a prie dieu, "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Mrs. Kidd.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and silk-faced peau. The fitted bodice with scalloped neckline and long sleeves that ended in lily points Milton Eason.

Capt. and Mrs. James N. Holt and sons left Saturday for their home in Dayton, O., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Holt.

Janice Choniski, daughter of Col. and Mrs. William J. Choniski, has spent the past month with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. May, and returned home to Battle Creek, Mich., by plane last Friday.

George Peck, Jr., went to New York City this weekend and will attend the World's Fair.

Miss Margaret Arnold is at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Arnold, recovering from recent surgery in Shreveport.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Davis, Beverly Hills, Calif., have been in Hope at the bedside of his father, Will Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wakefield and Rick, Alexandria, La., were weekend guests in the Hinton Davis home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bundy, Bill, Jr., and Don of Hot Springs and Mrs. Newt Bundy of Stephens were Sunday guest of Mrs. Leon Bundy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Helmer and two daughters, Channel View, Tex., are visiting the Bob and Arthur Dillard families.

Mrs. Roger Dew and son, Roger, Little Rock, have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Henry.

Hollywood Gold Cup Is the Richest

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The older horses move back into the racing spotlight Saturday after a weekend which saw four 3-year-olds enhance their chances of receiving title consideration when the laurels are handed out at the end of the year.

Richest race on Saturday's calendar is the $140,000 plus Hollywood Gold Cup over 1 1/4 miles at Hollywood Park. But of chief interest is the 1 1/4 miles of the $100,000-added Monmouth Handicap at Monmouth Park with Kelso and Mongo due to hook up for the first time since Mongo edged the four-time Horse of the Year in the Washington D.C. International at Laurel, Md., last Nov. 11.

Also on the program are the $40,000-added Equinoxe Mile at Arlington Park; the $30,000-added New Castle Handicap, first of Delaware Park's Distaff Big Three series and the $25,000 added Tidal Handicap at Aqueduct.

The field for the Monmouth Handicap will not be known until after the weights are announced today. But Mongo is on the grounds and Kelso and Olden Times are expected to be shipped from New York.

Miss Cavandish, who came from far back to take the $56,250 Monmouth Oaks last Saturday by one length over Castle Forbes and pay $5,600, is expected to make her next start in the Delaware Oaks July 25.

Quadrangle showed he is ready to dispute the 3-year-old championship with Northern Dancer by letting Malicious set most of the pace in the $81,800 Dwyer Handicap at Aqueduct and then winning by a neck.

Dandy K, far back in the Kentucky Derby, put in a strong claim for the midwest 3-year-old championship by winning the $33,950 Laurance Armour Handicap on the turf at Arlington Park.

With Santa Anita Derby winner Hill Rise still in the East awaiting for another clash with Quadrangle and Northern Dancer in the Travers, Real Good Deal wrapped up the West Coast title. He set all the pace in taking the $116,100 Hollywood Derby at Hollywood Park as Close By's winning streak was stopped at three straight.

"DEAR ABBY"

HE FIDDLES-SHE BURNS!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: We live in a project. In summer we keep all our windows open and so do the neighbors. There is a kid next door who takes violin lessons. He's about 11, and he practices all the time, but he doesn't seem to improve any. I always thought the teacher gave the kids a new piece every week. Well, something is wrong here because this kid has been playing Humoresque all summer. I saw his father on the street and I said, "Your Marvin sure practices a lot. I hear him night and day." His father said, "Don't complain. It's free. Some day you'll have to buy a ticket to hear him play." I don't want to file a complaint, Abby, but that kid is really disturbing my peace. Any suggestions?

A NEIGHBOR
Dear Neighbor: If Mother Love is "blind," Father Love is "deaf." Buy Marvin a mute, or buy yourself some ear plugs until it's time to buy the "ticket."

Dear Abby: I have a very dear friend whose feelings are easily hurt. It seems that anything I buy, be it furniture, toys for the children or clothes she always ends up with one like it. This has been going on for a long time. Our husbands work together and we go around in the same crowd. I suppose I should be flattered that she likes my taste so much, but people are beginning to call us "The Gold Dust Twins." How can I solve this problem without ruining the friendship?

CURIOUS
Dear Curious: No. But it was probably, "It's ME!"

Dear Abby: I am not asking for advice, I just want to cry on your shoulder, and hope that the right people read this and do something about it. I am living with my oldest married daughter. I have two other married daughters, and a married son, but this daughter is the only one who knows she has a mother. I make my home with her as I am a widow. I realize every family needs to be alone once in a while, but I have nowhere to go. I wish some of my other children would invite me for a weekend, or even a night, but they don't. I am not independent. I am not able to earn my own living. I have nothing. Sign me—

Orioles Gain a Split on Play of Aparicio

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Fleet Luis Aparicio, the major leagues' biggest thief, has branched out. He's now committing crimes in more ways than ever before.

Aparicio did just about everything but grab the ball and run away with it Sunday as the American League leading Baltimore Orioles split a doubleheader with Detroit. The Orioles won the opener 4-2, then dropped the nightcap 4-3 in 10 innings.

The sizzling shortstop rapped five hits, scored four runs and stole two bases in the games.

The thefts gave him a leading total of 33 but more important put him back into the base stealing racket. They were his first since he stole three times June 14. In the meantime, he missed about two weeks with a pulled groin muscle.

Aparicio, who has led the league in stolen bases for eight straight seasons, is a cinch to top last year's total of 40 and should eclipse his top mark of 56 recorded in 1959.

Still more important to the Orioles, Aparicio's hitting spurge boosted his average to .304, far above his .261 lifetime mark.

The first hit for the 30-year-old Venezuelan in the doubleheader was a double in the fifth. He scored the Orioles' first run on Sam Bowens' single.

With Baltimore trailing 2-1, Aparicio opened the eighth with a single, stole second and third, then scored the tying run on an infield out. Brooks Robinson hit a winning two-run homer minutes later.

In other AL games, Chicago swept Kansas City 3-1 and 11-4, Los Angeles took Minnesota 2-1 and 3-2 in 10 innings, Washington trounced Boston 10-3 after losing 5-3 and New York battled Cleveland to a 2-2 tie in a game called in the seventh because of rain.

In the National League, Milwaukee swept Philadelphia 4-3 and 6-2, Houston edged San Francisco 5-4, New York took Cincinnati 1-0 and 5-1 and Los Angeles thumped Chicago 6-2 after losing 6-3. Rain washed out the St. Louis-Pittsburgh doubleheader.

The Tigers won the second game despite Aparicio. A walk, a single by Don Wert and a passed ball set the stage for Mike Roarke's winning two-run single over a drawn-in infield in the bottom of the 10th.

Stu Miller, Baltimore's ace reliever, suffered his third setback in seven decisions. The loss was only the Orioles' third in 24 one-run games.

Pete Ward hit two homers and drove in six runs in Chicago's double victory. His homer in the nightcap was a grand slam, his third of the season. The hit climaxed a seven-run rally in the eighth inning that broke a 4-4 deadlock.

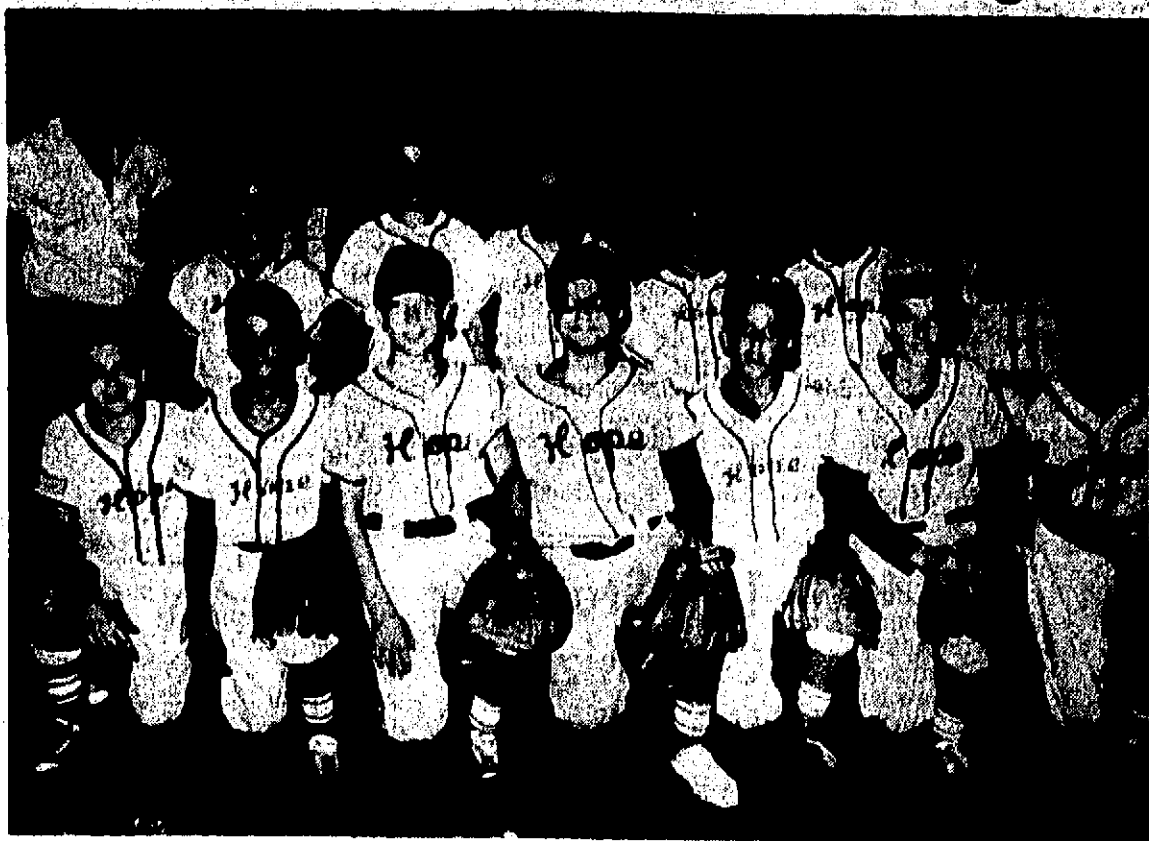

Dave Nicholson and Ward homered in the opener as John Buzhardt pitched a five-hitter. Nicholson was hit in the head by a Moe Drabowsky pitch in the second game but was not injured seriously.

The Angels' Bob Rodgers had his 18-game hitting streak stopped in the opener but singled home the winning run in the 10th inning of the nightcap. Shortstop Zoilo Versalles helped set up the run with a two-base throwing error on Willie Smith's grounder.

Fred Newman stopped the Twins on four hits in the first game. Jim Piersall doubled across the winning run in the ninth, handing Dick Stigmar a tough loss. Stigmar retired the first 5 men he faced and allowed only three hits.

The Senators' defeat in the opener was their eighth straight, equaling the longest losing streak in the majors this season. The Red Sox won it in

Braves Acting Like the Team of Other Days

By MIKE RATHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves are moving—but in a northerly direction.

Rumored to be headed to Atlanta and subjected to some caustic comments about their talents, the Braves ignored the former and answered the latter Sunday by continuing their sudden climb up the National League standings into fifth place.

The Braves, bogged down in ninth place two weeks ago, made it 11 victories in their last 15 games by sweeping a doubleheader from Philadelphia 4-3 and 6-2, knocking the Phillies into second place behind San Francisco.

The Braves' latest outburst came just two days after the Milwaukee County board chairman, Eugene Grobschmidt, fired a verbal broadside at the players.

Hank Aaron has been laying the groundwork for the Braves' streak with some amazing stickwork.

The slugging outfielder collected four hits against the Phillies—including No. 2,000 of his career—and extended his hitting string to 16 games. During that stretch, Aaron has driven in 17 runs while hitting at a .394 clip and lifting his average to .312.

sixth best in the league.

The Phillies, meanwhile, lost their fourth straight and again changed places with San Francisco in the tight pennant struggle.

The Giants moved one game out front despite losing to Houston 5-4 in a weird game in which San Francisco reliever Billy O'Dell was ejected before throwing a pitch and Gaylord Perry took over, then proceeded to change his shoes while sitting on the pitchers' mound.

Elsewhere, the New York Mets swept a doubleheader for the first time in more than a year by beating Cincinnati 1-0 and 5-1 while the Chicago Cubs downed Los Angeles 6-3 before the Dodgers won the nightcap 6-2 with a six-run ninth inning.

The St. Louis at Pittsburgh doubleheader was rained out.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox swept Kansas City 3-1 and 11-4 and the Los Angeles Angels edged Minnesota twice 2-1 and 3-2 in 10 innings. The others split, Boto beating Washington 5-3 before the Senators won 10-3 and Baltimore defeating Detroit 4-2 before the Tigers came back for a 4-3, 10-inning victory.

The New York Yankees and Cleveland played to a 2-2 tie in a game halted by rain after 6½ innings.

The Braves jumped on Chris Short in the opener for all their runs in the fourth inning.

Aaron doubled and scored the Braves' first run in the nightcap and drove in the second with a single, his 2,000th hit.

At Houston, O'Dell was called in for a relief role in the seventh inning, but was tossed out before he even threw one pitch because of a disagreement with Umpire Lee Weyer. Perry then got a hurry-up call, trudged in and shut down to change his shoes.

Perry ultimately was touched for a run-producing single by Nellie Fox that tied the score 4-4 and lost it in the ninth when Eddie Kasko, Dave Roberts and Fox stroked singles for the winning run.

Galen Cisco of the Mets won a battle of six-hitters with the Reds' Joey Jay in the opener when New York scored the game's only run in the ninth inning on consecutive doubles by George Altman and Joe Christopher.

The Mets wrapped up their first doubleheader sweep since June 23, 1963, as Ron Hunt collected three hits, including a homer, and rove in three runs in the nightcap. Frank Lary got the victory, his first as a National League pitcher.

The Cubs won the opener with a four-run ninth capped by Billy Williams' 21st homer off Ron Perranoski.

Ernie Broglio, looking for his first victory as a Cub, had a four-hit shutout going into the nightcap ninth when the Dodgers struck. Tommy Davis' bases loaded single tied the game and Ron Fairly scored the lead run on Frank Howard's infield out.

The system of Troy weights derives its name from the town of Troyes, France.

Oklahoma Team Has Girl Hurler

DEQUEEN, Ark. (AP)—The Tahina, Okla., entry in the DeQueen Little League baseball tournament is made up mostly of Indian youths, but much of the attention Tuesday will be on a 10-year-old southpaw pitcher.

Scheduled to take the mound Tuesday night for the Oklahomaans is Julie Cooper. And Julie's a she, the first girl to take part in Little League play in the DeQueen area and possibly in the state.

Julie has already recorded a victory in the tournament, and her team faces a second round test Tuesday night. Her season mark is 8-2.

BATTING—Pete Ward, White Sox, drove in six runs with two homers in 3-1, 11-4 doubleheader sweep against Kansas City, capping a seven-run eighth inning uprising in the nightcap with his third grand slam of the season.

PITCHING — Galen Cisco, Mets, broke his six-game losing streak by besting Cincinnati's Joey Jay 1-0 in a battle of six-hitters. The Mets completed their first doubleheader sweep since June 23, 1963, by taking the second game of the doubleheader 5-1.

NEW POWER-FORMULA ESSO EXTRA GASOLINE BOOSTS POWER THREE WAYS:

1 Cleaning Power! Dirt can clog even a new carburetor in a few months of normal operation—causing hard starting and rough idling. Your very first tankful of New Esso Extra will start to clear away these deposits—in new engines or old—to improve power and mileage.

2 Firing Power! Spark plug and cylinder deposits can cause misfiring, pre-ignition and hot spots. New Esso Extra neutralizes these harmful deposits—to help your engine fire smoothly, to help preserve the power of new cars and restore lost power to many older cars.

3 Octane Power! New Esso Extra has the high octane that most cars now need for full smooth performance without knocking. You'll get all these extras with New Power-formula Esso Extra gasoline—it puts a tiger in your tank! Happy Motoring!

Travelers Enjoy Sweep Over Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—The Arkansas Travelers overpowered the Dallas Rangers Sunday for a sweep of a Pacific Coast League baseball doubleheader here.

Arkansas won the first game 10-5 and took the nightcap 8-3.

Dallas started off ahead in both games and rallied in each, but Arkansas' long-ball attack was too much.

Dallas out-hit Arkansas 13-11 in the opener, but were out-hit 10-8 in the second game.

The Travelers used two four-run innings to take the opener, but the Rangers, trailing 6-2, rallied for three in the sixth to get within a run before the roof fell in again.

In the second game the Rangers jumped to a 1-0 lead, fell behind 3-1, but tied it up in the fifth before the Travelers splurged again—with one run in the sixth and four more in the seventh.

Although extra-base hits were plentiful, here were only two homers. Jim Hughes hit one for Dallas in the opener and Arkansas' Bill Sorrell got No. 10 in the second game.

Billy Smith evened his record to 8-8 in the opener, and Morris Stevens pushed his hurling mark to 3-0 in the nightcap.

Hunting Season Dates Announced

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interior Department announced today 1964-65 hunting season dates and bag limits for doves, bandtailed pigeons, rails, gallinules, woodcock and snipe.

Because of an increase in mourning dove populations across the nation, limits on them were increased.

Moderate increases were made in length of season and possession limit for Wilson's snipe. A reduction was made in the daily bag limit on sora rails, from 25 to 15.

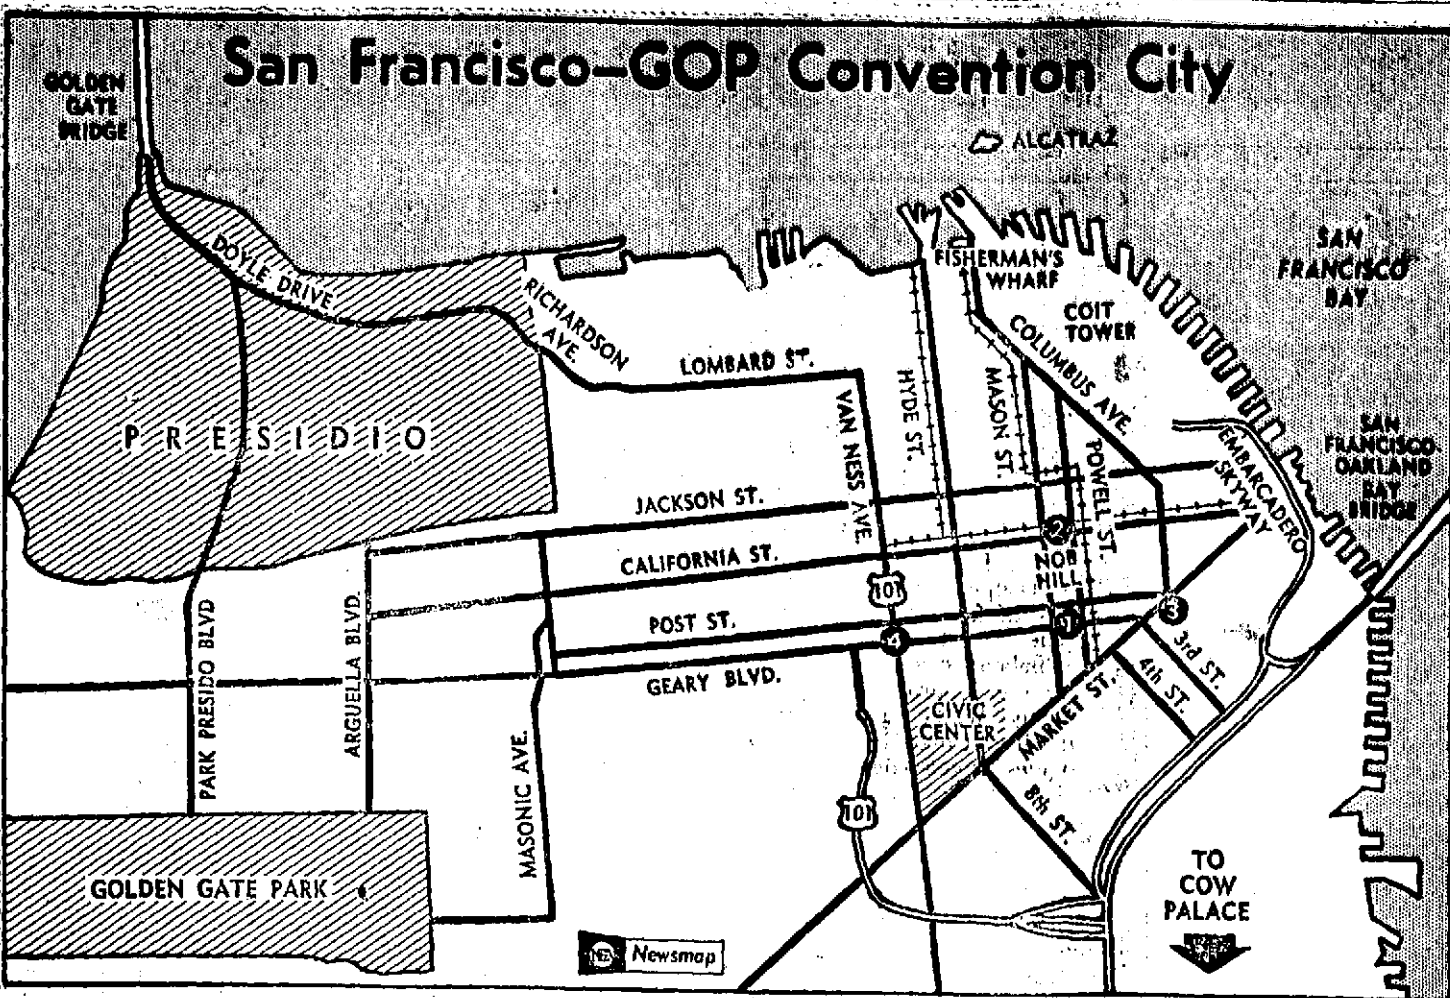

Other regulations conformed generally to those of last year. State game departments use the frameworks announced by the Interior Department to work out recommendations for the actual hunting regulations in their own states.

Unseasonably Cold Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unseasonably cold air accompanied by chilly rain lashed most of the country Monday.

Temperatures tumbled from Texas through the Great Lakes and Atlantic Coast regions. Thunderstorms also were reported in the Rocky Mountains and in the Southwest.

In the far west cooler air shoved into Washington and Oregon from the Pacific, also ending a heat wave.

gate was overheard asking another Goldwater delegate: "What do you think of Scranton?" Answer: "Don't know. Never been there."

With all the important people here, unless you're Dwight D. Eisenhower or one of the major candidates, about the only way to attract any real attention is to look conspiratorial in a hotel lobby. The thing too do is lean over to a friend and whisper, "I must get in touch with my people immediately." Do that and you'll be drowned under reporters, blinded by camera lights and choked to death with television.

Another way is to undress in public. One healthy young blonde drew off the mob in front of the Mark Hopkins Hotel by appearing in a blouse cut down to her waist. On one side of her striking superstructure he wore a Goldwater button; on the other, a Scranton button but nothing for the middle of the roaders.

Television and Radio

EDITOR'S NOTE—Arthur C. Nielsen Jr. is president of A. C. Nielsen Co., the marketing research organization whose ratings of television programs are the yardstick by which is measured the life span of most programs. Writing for vacationing Cynthia Lowry, Nielsen supplies a brief explanation of the ratings process—and its limitations.

By ARTHUR C. NIELSEN JR.
Written for Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—I know that ratings are about as popular with some television viewers as ants at a picnic. If I need to be reminded, I have only to read my mail.

Each season dozens of letters ask why Nielsen took a favorite program off the air. Last year's show, "Going my Way," which starred Gene Kelly, is a good example. Many people wrote to say that this kind of wholesome television series deserved to continue—adding that any system that would give a low rating to a fine show like this was absolutely wrong.

Writing to say how you feel about a program makes sense and we pass the letters on to the proper network, but the letters point to a widespread misunderstanding of what a rating is.

A television rating tells you only one thing: The estimated number of families watching a program.

It measures the size of a program's audience. A rating does not consider the value of a program's message—that is the viewer's job when he chooses to watch the program. Ratings 'count the house' for television—just as the box office ticket seller does for the movies.

Often letters ask us to please give a show a good rating. We can't give a particular show a good rating because this is beyond our power. Nielsen doesn't decide the ratings. Viewers in our sample audience do when they watch—or don't watch—a program.

All network shows are rated by our electric meter. When the set is turned on, our instrument measures the time and channel. This information comes to us coded on film. The data are fed into a computer and the ratings are automatically produced. The rating of a program is determined by projecting from that sample audience, the total number of homes viewing it.

The rating process gives the viewing public a chance to vote its preference. From the point of view of the individual, this majority rule may conflict with personal taste. This is a limitation of democracy—in politics as well as television. But the al-

Defector Is Member of U.S. Team

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—When Hungary's Olympic team disbanded at Melbourne in 1956, Bob Zimonyi decided to defect. Instead of going home to Budapest, the coxswain decided to try his luck in America.

Zimonyi, a wisp of a man at 46, will go to the Tokyo Olympics in October as a proud member of the United States team.

"After the revolution in Hungary, sports did not seem to be so important in my native land," said Zimonyi after the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia, with Zimonyi as coxswain, won Saturday's Olympic Trials. He just had taken his third ducking, once for tradition and twice for the television cameras.

"When I left Hungary I had only what I wore on my back," he said. "My mother and father are dead. My sister is visiting me now. If I ever go back to Hungary it will be just for a visit. I am very glad we made it for the boys and for myself. Now I will compete on the Olympic team of my new country. For I am an American citizen now."

Zimonyi is typical of the Vesper crew, first club eight to represent the U.S. in the Olympics since the Vespers won in 1900 and 1904. College rowers have dominated every Olympics since 1920, never losing until Navy bowed to Germany's Ratzburg crew in 1960.

Two undergraduates at LaSalle College, two Yale graduates, a 34-year-old businessman who is father of six children, and three service officers make up the Vesper eight, coached by Allen Rosenberg, a Philadelphia lawyer, with help from Dietrich Rose of the Ratzburg crew.

The crew defied all the rules that say a crew must row together for years to weld itself into a unit. The Vesper boat was made up four weeks ago.

The Vesper boat broke last, caught Harvard at the 800-meter mark and won by a length in 6 minutes, 1.3 seconds for the 2,000 meter (about 1 1/4 mile) Olympic route. Harvard had a length on previously unbeaten California and Yale was last.

Bill Stowe, the new stroke, was stroke at Cornell in 1961 and 1962 and now is a lieutenant in the Navy, stationed in Philadelphia.

The other crewmen are Stan Cwiklinski of Philadelphia (LaSalle undergrad), Hugh Foley of Philadelphia (LaSalle undergrad, transfer from Loyola of Los Angeles), Emery Clark and Boyce Budd (Yale grads), Lt. Joe Amlong (Air Force and West Point), Lt. Tom Amlong (Army and Virginia), Bill Knecht (Villanova grad, head of sheet metal firm) and Stowe.

Sterilization Badly Needed by Many

By BOB COOPER

BEREA, Ky. (AP)—"Times is hard. We just can't take care of any more children," the gaunt woman said as she signed for a sterilization operation.

"My folks had 10 of us young 'uns and didn't send a nary one of us to school a bit. I want to school my children as best I can and I think I got all I can handle."

At 29, the woman is the mother of four. She had to make her mark on the application. She can't write. Her husband, a tenant farmer, earned about $700 last year.

"These are the sort of people we want to help," said O. L. Keener, volunteer contact man for a committee that is sponsoring a six-month program of voluntary sterilization for needy parents.

The program is administered by the Human Betterment Association for Voluntary Sterilization of New York. It is financed by a $25,000 gift from Jesse Hartman, a New York businessman.

Dr. Louise Hutchings, president of the Mountain Maternal Health League, is chairman of the Berea committee. Her group has been advocating birth control, including sterilization, for 28 years.

"I went to see a doctor about three years ago," another mountain woman recounted. "I was pregnant with my 10th child and my legs swelled up so much the doctor said he didn't know how I could stand."

"The doctor told me about the operation. I wanted it." The association paid for the operation, which costs about $280 for women.

This woman and another, who underwent the operation 10 days ago, had the operations at the same time as childbirth. Their hospital stay was only a day or two longer than normal.

The committee sponsoring the program here would prefer that men underwent sterilization rather than their wives, but it often is difficult to convince a man to allow it, they say. Male operation costs about one-seventh as much, is much simpler and does not require hospitalization.

But many men feel that sterilization would be a stigma. Some fear loss of work time—even a few hours.

Keener said his group believes sterilization is one answer to the poverty that grips the mountain country of Appalachia.

So far, six couples have applied for the operations. They have a total of 53 children and four of them, with 35 children, have a total income of $4,000 a year.

"It (sterilization) is the only answer for some of these people," Keener said.

The Bluff Dwellers' shoes were woven sandals made of rattlesnake head grass.

Nothing for Middle of the Roaders

By SAUL PETT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Having survived the gold rush, the earthquake and the Japanese beetle, this city of grace and taste is now choked with corn as high as an elephant's eye, assorted nuts, promoter, press agent, world-savers and pamphleteers, including one pushing "a positive program for responsible extremism."

While the Republican convention itself gets started today on an incoming tide of oratory and an ebb of suspense, the parade of hoopla, spontaneous and synthetic, continues in what has been called the lull before the lull.

There are all kinds of people here, even delegates, but the ones who seem to be having the most fun are the wandering bands of kids. Like street urchins in an Italian movie, they go from one free load to another, from one hospitality suite to the next, collecting loot, punch, soda, campaign buttons, and tracts with fine impartiality.

For all the noise, bands, exhibitionists, for all the pickets for "Ringo (of the Beatles) for President" or those crying "Earl Warren must repent," for all the big button wears, including those whose pins cry simply for "Help" or "Mother" or "Stop Stassen," memorable wit remains hard to come by. However, one Goldwater dele-

Barry Should Be Satisfied on Platform

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — There's a lot of Sen. Barry Goldwater in the campaign promises nailed together by the Republican platform committee. He can be highly satisfied with it.

Although he wanted a short platform, and this is long, he wanted one which was mostly a declaration of principles. In a large sense, that's what it is. And, just because it is, it's patched over with vagueness.

Anyone reading it would have to stick a big question mark in many of the paragraphs, asking himself: "What does this mean? How will this be done?" There will be a fight over some parts of it Tuesday on the convention floor by Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton. Goldwater's leading opponent for the Republican presidential nomination. But as of now Scranton's fading fast and probably won't get far.

The foreign policy plank, for instance, starts off with a ringing call for a "dynamic strategy." That's the typical political platform rubber wording.

The Republicans created a big question mark when they went on to say they "reaffirm their long-standing commitment to a course leading to the eventual liberation" of the Red-rut countries of Eastern Europe, Asia and Latin America.

John Foster Dulles, later President Eisenhower's secretary of state, talked liberation of the satellites back in 1952. But when he and Eisenhower ran foreign policy later nothing ever came of it. Even when the East Germans and Hungarians revolted nothing was done to help them. Dulles never quite lived down the promise.

The platform promises a "drastic reorganization of foreign aid." This suits Goldwater fine. He had repeatedly voted in the Senate against foreign aid bills.

In speeches around the country he had called for elimination of the graduated income tax, preferring, as he said, to have a system by which poor and rich would pay the same percentage of tax, which would mean a great saving, particularly for the rich.

The senator never repudiated that proposal although he hasn't been mentioning it lately. The platform doesn't go so far as Goldwater but it calls for simplification as well as lowering of the "rates to strengthen individual and business incentives."

Exactly what the platform committee had in mind isn't clear.

Another plank pledges revision of the Social Security laws to "allow higher earnings, without loss of benefits, by our elderly people." Again: No explanation.

Goldwater in the past had talked of putting Social Security on a voluntary basis. This got him criticism and he stopped saying it. Then he said he wanted to strengthen Social Security and make the pension dollar sound. But he never publicly repudiated the idea of a voluntary system.

Goldwater had voted against an increase in the minimum wage law. One platform pledge would provide "incentive for employers to hire teenagers, including broadening of temporary exemptions under the minimum wage law."

The platform also would drastically curtail the power of the National Labor Relations Board, the Federal Trade Commission and the Food and Drug Administration, all of which coincides with Goldwater's calls for less government authority.

The platform also promises two constitutional amendments. But the purpose of one isn't clear. This suggests an amendment to let people exercise their religion in public places but would not undo the Supreme Court's ban on compulsory or prepared religious readings in public schools.

The other slaps at the court which said the membership in both houses of a state legislature must be based on equal proportions of the population. The platform wants an amendment letting one of the two houses choose its membership as it pleases.

Probably the most controversial part of the platform—the one most likely to provoke a convention floor fight—is on civil rights. But oddly enough this part seems to contain one of the clearest pledges, although it doesn't suit Scranton.

It promises "full implementation and faithful execution of the Civil Rights Act of 1960 (which Goldwater voted against) and all other civil rights statutes."

Shorty

A Short Short Story
© 1964 by NEA, Inc.

By Guy W. Van Schantz
To prepare the ground for Turkey Red winter wheat, that brand new crop which was to literally transform our cow country Aunt Mag ordered us to fence the neck of the "second sod" 80 which stuck out, she claimed, like a sore thumb, from her two-section "she stuff" pasture.

Second sod, be it explained, was land plowed by the homesteaders in the early 1880's to meet the requirements of the government preemption laws. All had long gone back to grass now that the patent to the land had been procured. Throughout the concluding scores of years of the Twentieth Century there were countless fields of second sod scattered over the cattle ranges of the Southwest.

Next morning, Ace Downs, Aunt Mag's foreman, handed me a spade with a long slim blade and a crowbar and told me to dig a hole two feet where each stake of a long straight row stood.

Building barb wire fences during that period was hard slow work. We had no gasoline-operated post hole augers mounted on trucks or tractors to do the heavy work—had no trucks or tractors.

It was a beautiful spring day. A light breeze blew out of the south. The meadowlarks sang their lilting songs, bands of antelope grazed far out on the buffalo grass flats, their white rump flashing in the sun, the prairie dogs barked and the prairie dogs twisted their heads around and around. (Some cowpunchers I knew insisted that the prairie dog owl could and often did turn its head completely around.)

Presently I found my next stake in the bottom of one of a wide swath of cow paths. Any way they looked like cow paths, six or eight inches deep, all alike, extending northeast and south west as far as I could see, more irregular and somewhat less neat and tidy than the universal five ruts of the prairie "divide" roads we always traveled. In those days, going anywhere, in any vehicle.

"That's the old Santa Fe Trail," Ace Downs answered my inquiry as to how come so many cow paths so far from water. "The Dry Cut-Off from the Arkansas river across to the Cimarron. Take a right good squint at it, Son. Some day, likely, you'll be proud to brag that, a long time ago, when you was a skinny young sprout, sportin' your first highheeled boots, you dug post holes across the Old Santa Fe Trail."

I'll never forget our talk around the chuck wagon fire that night, about the famous old trail, and the emigrants, hunters, trappers, traders and Indian fighters who had suffered and fought and died and became famous, or infamous, traveling it. Many of the tall tales told that night, so common then, are vivid memories to me yet today.

Aunt Mag is an old woman now. Last fall she called a reunion of her relatives. Fifty-two of us came to her ultra-modern ranch type house in the grove of huge gnarled old cottonwoods. We had a wonderful time.

The second morning Aunt Mag insisted on "showing us the place." After an hour of driving past the three producing oil well in breaks of the Cimarron and through dozens of scattered herds of beautiful curly-haired white-faced cattle, Aunt Mag's expensive big beige car headed northwest trailed by 17 sedans, station wagons and pickups.

The light breeze blew out of the south again and meadowlarks sang. But the buffalo grass was gone, the barking prairie dogs had disappeared and the antelope that flashed in the sun had vanished. Miles and miles of expertly tilled and terraced fields of wheat and maize were there, a dozen tractors actively at work.

The old prairie had changed. For the better, probably. People had things easier and did more with less effort. But you pay for what you get and when leisure was purchased, something had been paid out and it was the charm of a wilderness in this case. Perhaps those old timers who first settled here had fun of a different kind. Certainly it hadn't been all tough going or the West would have never been won.

Aunt Mag stopped suddenly. With a pang I realized what she was showing us. Parallel rows of buffalo grassgrown ruts stretching from the northeast to the southwest, diagonally, through the vast acreage of golden

"I just couldn't let them plow it up," Aunt Mag declared, her old eyes misty with emotion. "So few reminders of the Frontier West are left. I hope you'll leave them when I'm gone."

Then she told them how her old foreman, Ace Downs, now long dead, had prophesied that some day I would be proud that when a youngster I had dug post holes across the Old Trail.

Conventions as Noisy as 4th of July

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — As noisy as the Fourth of July but flat as a board.

As of now that's how the two big political conventions look: The Republicans in San Francisco next week and the Democrats' starting Aug. 24 in Atlantic City.

Stories out of San Francisco this week indicate Sen. Barry Goldwater has the presidential nomination clinched — probably on the first ballot — and that his opponent, Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton, is just treading air.

Since President Johnson's nomination by the Democrats is a foregone conclusion, the steam is out of their gathering before it begins.

If all this holds true the only problem will be over the vice presidential nominees, and even that will probably be cut and dried.

Johnson will do the deciding on his running-mate. So there won't be excitement over that, either, unless he keeps his choice for No. 2 man secret until the last minute. That wouldn't mean a fight, just a surprise.

Scranton apparently has been making unphenomenal progress in his search for delegates to stop Goldwater. If the delegates already credited to Goldwater stick with him, a first ballot nomination will be his.

Here again there could be a squabble over the vice presidential selection, but probably not.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL Amendment No. 52 (Legislative)

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas to wit:

SECTION 1. The General Assembly shall have the power to provide by general laws for the establishment and operation (a) of industrial districts for the purpose of securing and developing industry, and (b) of hospital districts for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, reconstructing or extending hospitals. The land boundaries of the respective said districts shall be fixed in the manner provided by the General Assembly.

SECTION 2. The said districts shall have such powers pertaining to the respective purposes aforesaid and may exercise the same in such manner as shall be provided by the General Assembly, including without limitation power to issue bonds and to levy taxes upon the taxable real and personal property in said districts, upon approval thereof by a majority of the qualified electors of said district voting thereon at an election called for such purpose. Provided, however, there shall never be levied a tax on the taxable real and personal property; (a) of any industrial district which, together with any tax levied under the provisions of Amendment No. 49 to the Constitution, shall exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof; or (b) of any hospital district, which, together with any tax levied under the provisions of Amendment No. 17 to the Constitution, shall exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof, except that, the full said five (5) mills being levied under Amendment No. 17, the said hospital district may levy an additional tax of not to exceed one (1) mill on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property in said hospital district. Provided further, that the total taxes levied under this Amendment and under Amendment No. 49 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in an industrial district shall never exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof, and the total taxes levied under this Amendment and under Amendment No. 17 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in any hospital district shall never exceed six (6) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof.

SECTION 3. To such extent and in such manner as the General Assembly may provide, taxes collected under Amendment No. 32 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in any hospital district shall be used for maintaining, operating and supporting district hospitals.

SECTION 4. The provisions here of shall be construed as supplemental to all constitutional provisions and legislative acts relating to the subject matters of this Amendment.

In Star's Photo Contest

THIS ENTRY IN HOPE STAR'S $100 VACATION Picture Contest is by Martha Bader, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bader, 619 N. Hervey St., Hope. The contest runs through Labor Day.

THE GIRL IN THE PHOTOGRAPH IS MARTHA'S sister Mary Ann — and Mary Ann is on a rock on Petit Jean Mountain overlooking the Arkansas River valley. Engraving is from a 2 1/4-inch square color print.

Goldwater, if he does have his own nomination locked up, can do his own choosing on the No. 2 man.

Nevertheless, the conventions will be one of the big shows of the year. The public interest will be acute. Most of the speeches probably will be unbelieveably dull. And the noise will be awful.

It's been some years since there was any real struggle at both Democratic and Republican conventions in one season.

In 1960 John F. Kennedy had some trouble from Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson. But he squelched that and took Johnson to be his vice presidential partner. At that year's Republican convention all opposition to the nomination of Vice-President Richard M. Nixon was gone before the delegates got together.

In 1956 the Republican convention was a mere routine in nominating President Dwight D. Eisenhower for a second term, and a second one for Vice President Nixon. That same year a number of Democrats' names were put in nomination at their meeting.

But W. Averell Harriman, who had been boomed by former President Harry Truman as the man for the job, got knocked off by Adlai E. Stevenson who then ran for a second time against Eisenhower and just as unsuccessfully.

Sen. Estes Kefauver, who had worked hard for the No. 1 spot accepted the No. 2 one on the ticket with Stevenson.

The 1952 Democratic convention was a struggle for a while — there was nothing sewed up before it began — but Stevenson won on the third ballot after his two main opponents, Harriman and Kefauver, dropped out. Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama was the vice presidential nominee. That year the Republicans

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL Amendment No. 53 (Legislative)

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, to wit:

SECTION 1. The first unnumbered paragraph of Section 4 of Article 12 of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows: "No municipal corporation shall be authorized to pass any laws contrary to the general laws of the State; and except as otherwise specifically authorized by amendments to the Constitution, no municipal corporation shall be authorized to levy any tax on real or personal property to a greater extent, in one year, than one per cent of the assessed value of the same."

SECTION 2. Section 9 of Article 16 of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows: "Except as otherwise specifically authorized by amendments to the Constitution, no county shall levy any tax on real or personal property to a greater extent, in one year, than one per cent of the assessed value of the same; provided, however, that not less than three-eighths of the amount of any such tax shall, as specified by the county tax levying authority, be used exclusively for the construction, reconstruction and maintenance of roads and bridges in the County Highway System."

SECTION 3. Amendments No. 3, 22 and 27 to the Constitution are hereby repealed."

SECTION 4. The provisions of this amendment shall take effect and be in full force on and after November 4, 1964."

Discussion of Pill in Birth Control

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

SHREWSBURY, Mass. (AP) — The Pill is small—sometimes pink, sometimes orange, sometimes red, white and blue.

In a world facing a gain of 120,000 a day, 48 million a year, a population of 6 1/2 billion by the year 2000 it is man's most ingenious means of birth control—the most effective and the most talked about.

It worries a lot of people, angers some, brings hope to others and has caused some reconsideration of social attitudes.

From the day the first woman took the oral contraceptive pill in December of 1945, it has been a subject of controversy.

Will it destroy social mores and create a promiscuous world?

Will it cause cancer in women? Is it against nature? Despite the questions and arguments the pill has become a daily habit for six million women over the world—half of them Americans.

And in just over six years on change with the youngsters "because most of the time I talk to people just as bald-headed and old as I am."

the U.S. prescription market, it has become a major weapon in the arsenal of birth control devices. Its true usage is hard to measure.

The highest per capita use is in Australia. The Egyptian government and others pass out pills to mothers who want to limit the size of their families.

Even now, the pill and other methods of birth control are under study at the highest levels of the Vatican.

However a change in the traditional Roman Catholic view toward birth control is considered unlikely—Pope Pius XII called the use of the pill "illicit sterilization." Pope Paul VI in recent weeks indicated there was little reason to change the Catholic position.

Yet some Catholic women do take the pill—as Church leaders admit. They insist, however, that any attempt to offer statistics on the number is foolhardy.

Today, the U.S. birth rate is falling. The pill has been named as the major cause. But Dr. Gregory Pincus of the Worcester Foundation for Experimental Biology, Shrewsbury, Mass., thinks this unlikely. He is a co-developer of the pill, which was developed at the foundation.

Population experts agree with Dr. Pincus that cause for the falling U. S. birth rate, they say, is simply that today's women want smaller, more manageable families in keeping with their financial status. The whole list of birth control devices and methods is used.

Dr. Alan F. Guttmacher of New York's Mt. Sinai Hospital cites 1960 statistics showing that at least 80 out of every 100 American married couples practice some means of birth control—from mechanical devices to the pill, to the Catholic-approved rhythm method.

Essentially it mimics the state of pregnancy—when there can be no further conception. The pill prevents ovulation—the release of eggs from the ovaries. The woman takes a pill each day for 20 days.

In pregnancy, the hormone progesterone—and perhaps to some extent the sex hormone estrogen—inhibit ovulation. With the pill, synthetics of the natural hormones do the same thing.

Today, a woman can receive a month's supply of pills for about $2.00, Dr. Pincus estimates. Newer pills on the market use diminishing amounts of the hormones, but get the same effects.

There was a recent report that laboratory animals which were fed a common U.S. birth control pill showed accelerated growth of existing tumors. But Dr. Pincus said that it has long been known that many animal cancers are dependent on hormones—can be slowed by hormone preparations in one strength and sped up by hormones in another strength.

Former Premier of Iran Dies

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Former Premier Hussein Ala, 79, died today of pneumonia at his home on the outskirts of Tehran.

In 57 years as a diplomat and politician, Ala was premier twice. He also once was ambassador to Washington.

women show, however, that use of the pills may actually inhibit the normal rate of cancers of the female reproductive tract, Dr. Pincus said. He added that in Haiti and other test areas, doctors have found fewer signs of suspicious cells in regular medical checkups of pill users.

As more experience has been gained since the first licensed pill, in 1957, the pills have become smaller and cheaper. Manufacturers have cut the dosage at least three-fourths since that first pill.

There are 30 trade names available on the world market—representing about 10 separate drugs, Dr. Pincus says.

In the United States, the Food and Drug Administration's index lists four firms licensed to sell six kinds of pills, most of them similar.

There is a scarcity of information on the effects of oral contraceptives on social or sexual mores of those taking them. Dr. Pincus says this is one area where research is badly needed.

ICC Okays Merger of 3 Railways

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission has approved the consolidation of the Norfolk & Western, Nickel Plate, and Wabash railroads into a 7,450-mile system.

The ICC, in announcing the decision today, said the Pennsylvania Railroad must get rid of all of its financial interests in the N & W and the Wabash, because the Pennsylvania "is in a position to extend its control over the proposed system."

The transaction involves the merger of the Nickel Plate—formerly known as the New York, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad—into the Norfolk & Western, and the subsequent lease of the Wabash.

The result would be a rail network extending from the port of Hampton Roads, Va., to the Great Lakes and Midwest.

The decision was adopted June 24 by a 10-1 vote. The ICC said the consolidation may not take place unless the Pennsylvania notifies the commission by Sept. 16—30 days after the order takes effect—of its intent to divest.

No particular plan of divestiture was specified, but the ICC said all holdings in the new system must be disposed of over a 10-year period.
